

Mineral Therapy

Subject Description

Minerals have constantly been used in the treatment of human illness. This module discusses the principles and history of Mineral Therapy.

General Content

- History and Philosophy of Mineral Therapy
- Principles of Mineral Therapy
- Sodium Phosphate and Sodium Phosphate
- Potassium Phosphate and Potassium Sulphate
- Calcium Sulphate and Calcium Fluoride
- Magnesium Phosphate and Iron Phosphate
- Silica
- Prescription of Celloid Mineral Therapy
- Repertory of Mineral Therapy

Nominal Hours:	84
Domestic Costs:	$550.00
International Costs:	$770.00

Pre-requisites

- Nil

Co-requisites

- Nil

Study Options

- Full-time
- Part-time
- External Studies (Distance Education/ Flexible delivery)
- Mixed mode (combination of all options)

Assessment

Assessment for this subject may include a combination of the following:

- Assignment (see Assignment Writing Guide)
- Final Examination

Courses of which this subject is a component

Advanced Diploma of Naturopathy
Advanced Diploma of Nutrition
Certificate IV in Applied Science – Nutrition

As an Elective

Advanced Diploma of Western Herbal Medicine